FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT.

THE use of that extremely valuable Food and Remedy EXTRACT OF MALT has been retarded by its usually viscid condition; to obviate this objection we have had prepared a FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT as easily poured out of the bettle and measured into doses as any other Fluid.

It contains as much of the DIASTASE as any viscid EXTRACT OF MALT and is therefore fully as active in tissue forming and digestive power.

Two tablespoonfuls of our FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT contain more nutritive and digestive value than a pint of the strongest Ale or Stout. In 115. bottles 75 cents. Per donen $8.00.

WHICH is the country, asks a home paper, that produces the largest quantity of gold? Many people, probably, would say Australia ; but it i not so. The yearly production of gold in the United States, according to a recent calculation, is valued at nearly seven millions sterling. Australia, which occupies the second place, only produces a little over five millions worth; but it is run very close nowadays by Russia, with an output valued at nearly four millions and threequarters. Next come the South African Republic (£2,760,000), the English possessions in Asia and Africa (£1,020 000), China (£1,080,000), and New Ze : land (£760,000). Among other countries where a small quantity of gold is found, are French Gulana, Germany, Hungary, Chili, Mexico, Venezuela, Bililah Gulana, Canada, Each of them produces from £200,000 to £100.000 worth. For silver production the United States again head the list, closely followed in order of importance by Mexico, then at a long interval comes Bolivia, and afterwards Germany Again, after a long interval, come Chill, France, Central America, British Gulana, and China.

SUPREME COURT.

IN CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

(Before Chief Justice Fielding Clarke) January 18th.

A FINE LARGE GAOL TO LET CHEAP. The January Session was opened this mornstill in hospital, the prisoner cannot be tried yet, so that the cil masr was a blank,

The Attorney General (Hon. W. M. Goodman) briefly addressed his lordship, expressing his gratification at such a satisfactory state of affairs. The old practice (universal in England) of presenting the presiding judge with a pair of white kid gloves, in token of the spotless innocence of the whole population (and also in token of the cold weather i) had been for some time in abeyance in Hongkong, and at the last Sessions when the calendar was clear there were no gloves. This time, however, the Deputy Registrar (Mr. Sangster) would fulfil the timebonoured custom.

Mr. Sangster accordingly asked his lordship's *cceptance of a prir of whitekid gloves (specially built for the occasion.)

His Lordship thanked the Attorney General and Deputy Registrar for their kindness and consideration, and expressed the hope that this absence of serious crime would be long continued. He would not too confidently expect it, however, as criminals seemed to break loose on the Colony in batches -sometimes there was almost complete immunity for a period, and then again there would be all at once a large number of cases. He thought the diminution in Sessions cases was chiefly due to the extension of the Magistrates' powers for dealing summarily with offenders of certain kinds, under the Magistrates Ordinance (10 of 1890.) He thanked the jurors and all present for their attendance.

This concluded the proceedings.

" VANISHING ACT" IN FOOCHOW.

A Foochow correspondent writes: -- When Lord Connemara, the hero of a sensational divorce suit, passed through here on his way home about eighteen months ago, on the advice of some wise 'guide, philosopher and friend' he left the handrome sum of £10,000 in the handr of the Compredore, of a well-known hong, fo investment. That is the Compradore who has litely performed the Vanishing Act. leaving behind him a deficit of over $200,000. My Lord Connemara's fro oon investment has also vanished. Alex i alack i this is only another practical illustration of the folly of putting your trust in the princely compradores of alleged princely bongs.
